

Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund - CARE sections

Partner nomination form

If you are unmarried or not in a civil partnership, you may nominate a partner to receive a pension from the PCPF on your death. To qualify:

- you and your nominee must be co-habiting, in an exclusive, financially dependent or inter-dependent relationship at the time of your death;
- you must not have been prevented from marrying or forming a civil partnership.

The benefit is available to both opposite and same sex partnerships.
